A tip and quick action by the Union Township police resulted in the arrest Sunday of three people who police said had about a half million dollars in drugs.

At about 2:45 p.m. Sunday the Union Township Police got a tip from the Clermont County Narcotics Unit that allowed officers to get into position to stop a vehicle that was traveling down Eastgate Boulevard.

Officers stopped the vehicle and found cash and a large number of pills in bags including OxyContin and Vicodin. The estimated street value of the drugs is about $500,000.

The two men and one woman in the vehicle were arrested and are being held in the Clermont County Jail.
